

Please support entrepreneurship and capitalism by letting XM Radio (and any other satellite service) to continue to provide the services it has developed. I find it dissapointing that business organizations find it easier to try and kill competition than to develop ideas that can compete. Do not support this kind of protectionist behavior when it is only designed to protect the corporate entities and not designed to protect or further the public's "interest, convenience and necessity".